

Media Release – April 2011

JUMPERS ALL SET TO TRIAL AT OAKBANK ON MONDAY APRIL 18th

To ensure entrants are prepared for this years races, jumps trials for the 2011 Oakbank Easter Carnival Hurdles and Steeplechases will be held this Monday April 18th at Oakbank Racecourse at 9:30am.

Oakbank Racing Club Chairman John Glatz said “We are again pleased to see that our Clubs support for jumps racing is also being supported by the local and international racing community. We have a great number of jumps entrants from within the state, as well as record nominations Victoria and New Zealand.”

“Everything is in place for a sensational Oakbank again this Easter – We have A1 fields of horses and racegoers will be able to see the skills of internationally renowned trainers and jockeys on show both at Monday’s trials and on Easter Saturday and Monday” said Glatz.

For the first time since Anzac Days inception, this year’s Oakbank Easter Racing Carnival will have the added significance of Easter Monday coinciding with Anzac Day so the Last Post will be part of the day to ensure the bravery of our Anzacs is remembered and honoured. (NOTE: The next time Anzac Day coincides with Easter Monday is not until 2095).
