

Media Release – November 2010

Watch out Easter Bunny Santa is on your turf

For the first time in its one hundred and thirty five year history Oakbank racing club will race this December.

The action at the inaugural Christmas Twilight race meeting will start at approximately 2:30-7:30pm on Friday December 10 at Oakbank Racecourse.

Oakbank Racing Club Chairman John Glatz said “We are really excited to host what we hope will be Adelaide’s best Christmas party. We have something on offer for everyone – from picnics, to racing, to Santa, to corporate and syndicated marquees, its going to be an absolutely great day at Oakbank this December.”

“Oakbank is synonymous with celebrations hosting the biggest picnic race meeting at Easter and we are looking for Adelaide-ians to help us to build this event into the biggest Christmas race meeting on the planet starting this year” said John.

Punters will be extra happy as organisers have ensured this event will line up with Moonee Valley Twilight racing, whilst partygoers will enjoy all the fun of a Christmas party at the races in the stunning Adelaide Hills.

Leading companies rumoured to be firming up plans to celebrate christmas at oakbank are Coopers, Yalumba, Renniks and Kloses supermarkets.

Part proceeds from Christmas Twilight at Oakbank will go to the Childhood Cancer Association.
