

Media Release – Monday April 5 2010

100,000 vote Oakbank their Clear Favourite this Easter

With fantastic fields and crowds of 100,000 across the weekend, this years Oakbank Easter Racing Carnival was a day to be remembered trackside this Easter.

Oakbank Racing Club Chairman John Glatz Said “We sincerely thank all our sponsors, supporters, patrons and the racing industry for making our 2010 a success. “.

Winning the Scott Group of Companies Great Eastern Steeplechase was It's a Dud ridden by Steve Pateman and trained by Patrick Payne

Spotted trackside enjoying all the tradition and fun of Oakbank were Snowy Carter of Mix FM, Kerry Monroe of I Love Billy Shoes, Childhood Cancer Association (CCA) President Chris Powell, as well as CCA's patron the Hon. Rear Admiral Kevin Scarce and new Oakbank Racing Club sponsor Coopers Chairman and Marketing Director Glenn Cooper.

Oakbank Racing club Charity Partner the Childhood Cancer Association had a team of volunteers trackside this weekend collecting for their great work with people with Cancer in Sa “We have been overwhelmed by the generosity of patrons here in our first year at Oakbank as well as by the support of the Oakbank Racing Club. We look forward to a continued partnership with Oakbank in the years ahead” said Cath O'Loughlin, General Manager of Childhood Cancer Association.

Young Fashionistas male and female dressed up for Fashion on the Field on Easter Monday in the Coopers Clear/Alma Hotel Young Members Marquee Oakbank for the chance to win a great prizes. Judges are The Advertisers Fashion Editor – Anna Vlach and Billy Munroe of I Love Billy Shoes were hosted by, Mix 102.3 FM's Brekky announcer Snowy Carter. Winners were Steven Noonan and Marianne Vereker who won prizes from Coopers, Miss Gladys Sym Choon, Barlow Shoes, 8 Designs, and Charlton Agencies.

“With today committed to the history books, we now look forward to our first ever fourth race meeting in a season at Oakbank– the Oakbank Inaugural Twilight Race Meeting on Friday December 10th 2010 – We'd love people to celebrate Christmas as well as Easter with us at Oakbank ” said Glatz

All Oakbank Season enquiries can be made via the club website at www.oakbankracingclub.com.au

Upcoming Media Diary Date for Oakbank Season 2010

Oakbank Inaugural Twilight Race Meeting - Friday December 10th 2010

– more details to come in mid 2010.

END

Media Contact for More Information:

Sarah Coligan - Oakbank Pr Consultant - 0404 003 061